

THE TACP ADVANTAGE....

TACP members are dedicated to the highest ideals of honor and integrity to maintain the respect and confidence of their government officials, subordinates, the public, and their fellow members of law enforcement.

The P.O.S.T. Commission rules require Chiefs of Police to have executive level training. The Tennessee Association of Chiefs of Police provides their nearly 550 members with the resources needed to ensure that they are members of the leading organization in the field of law enforcement leadership. Chief law enforcement officials and city officials alike will find the TACP membership gives them a clear, invaluable professional edge —

TACP's mission is Your Advantage!

The Tennessee Association of Chiefs of Police was formed over 35 years ago to support and maintain the highest standards of professional law enforcement and public safety. TACP is a leader in setting law enforcement standards on ethics, integrity, and leadership; while providing services to its membership to promote and practice professionalism in our departments, communities and throughout this great state.

Bi-monthly meetings provide law enforcement executives and their command staff with the proper tools to perform tasks through:

- Quality Professional training
- Ethical leadership
- Management development
- Legislative representation
- Local, state, & national information
- Municipal law enforcement consultation
- Technology, grant and safety program updates
- Cooperation, communication, and the exchange of information statewide
- Networking with other law enforcement and government officials
- Information Sharing
